NEW DELHI-110011, the 27th Feb 78.

To

The Secretary and Director General,
The Institution of Engineers (India),
8-Gokhale Road,
CALCUTTA-700020.

Subject:-Recognition of certain technical and professional qualifications by the UPSC for admission to the examinations for recruitment to non-technical Services/posts conducted by them - Clarification regarding.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to your letter No:DS/40, dated 2nd February, 1978, addressed to the Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms, copy ~~encl~~ endorsed to this office, on the subject noted above, and to state that the UPSC have already decided that professional and technical qualifications such as a pass in Sections 'A' and 'B' of the AMIE, Graduateship Examination of the Institution of Electronics and Tele-communication Engineers, etc. which are recognised by the Government as equivalent to degree in Engineering for purposes of recruitment to Superior Services and posts under the Central Government should be recognised for purposes of admission to competitive examinations conducted by them for recruitment to non-technical Services/posts (viz. the IAS etc., Assistants' Grade and Combined Defence Services Examinations) for admission to which degree of a recognised University or equivalent has been prescribed as the basic educational qualification. This decision was given wide publicity and a copy of the Press issued by the Commission on 29.12.77 is enclosed for your information.

Yours faithfully,

B.S. Jolly
(B.S. Jolly)
Under Secretary,
Union Public Service Commission.
